VACANCIES IN CITY OFFICES ARE FILLED

REMAINING COUNCIL CHOOSE J. B. BOWELL MAYOR AND A. R. UNDERWOOD COUNCILMAN AT-LARGE.

ACCEPT RESIGNATION

Clizbe's Action Accepted By Members—Another Election Next Monday To Choose Two More Councilmen.

Sept. 27.—At a special meeting of the city council last night John B. Bowell was made mayor of the city and A. R. Underwood councilman-at-large. The session was a short one and the work soon done.

Councilman Van Gilder nominated Mr. A. R. Underwood for councilman-at-large to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Jos. Swindell. There was no other nomination and the vote was unanimous. Mr. Underwood was at once sworn in and took his seat.

The resignation of A. R. Clizbe as councilman-at-large was then accepted, and Monday, Sept. 25, at 7:00 p. m. set as the time to elect his successor.

Councilman Van Gilder nominated John Bowell for mayor and he was elected by all three votes, he himself not voting. Mr. Bowell was not sworn in, and did not hand in his resignation as councilman from the Second ward. This, it is supposed, he will do later, and another time set for the election of a councilman from that ward.

It is well known that the time set for the election of a mayor was one day short of that required by law, but since there will be nobody to question Bowell's election, it will be practically the same as if he was legally elected.

It was ordered by the council that Michigan street, from Harrison to Laporte, should be roped off to prevent teams or autos from going through during the Fall Festival and endangering people on foot.

W. A. Jones was given permission to cut the large oak tree which stands in the middle of the street north of east Sophia street in the Bollman addition.

ALLEGES LIFE IS IN DANGER

Prosecutor of Legislative Grafters Issues Statement.

TELLS OF DYNAMITING PLOT

Edmund Burke of Springfield, Ill., Declares He and His Assistant Are Murderously Threatened—Thinks Body Guard Necessary.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 27.—That grafters and crooks of this city are seeking his life and that of his assistant, E. Wilbur S. Galeener, is the belief of Edmund Burke, state's attorney for Sangamon county, who prosecuted the legislative graft cases, and he has given out a statement to that effect. Burke declares that one attempt was made to blow up his house with dynamite bombs and that since Sept. 13 a heavy guard from the sheriff's office has been thrown around his home, and that guards constantly protect him and Mr. Galeener from the conspirators.

The attempt to blow up Mr. Burke's house, he said, was set for the night of Sept. 13 and was frustrated only by the fact that one of the conspirators "got cold feet" and warned the sheriff's office by telephone. The sheriff rushed deputies to Mr. Burke's home and the plotters fled.

In the statement the prosecutor declares that the names of the men in the plot are known to him and the sheriff and that arrests will be made soon. He charges that four men against whom he has waged prosecution for arson recently are leaders in the conspiracy, and believes others whose hatred he incurred in his vigorous prosecution of legislative graft also are implicated.

Burke says that neither he nor Mr. Galeener ever goes upon the street without a strong bodyguard.

WILL CASE IS COMPROMISED

Universalist Convention of Indiana Gets Thompson Homestead.

Shelbyville, Ind., Sept. 27.—The trial of the suit to break the will of the late Delos H. Thompson of Waldron ended abruptly in superior court here, the settlement coming by means of a compromise, in which the plaintiff, William T. Latimore, a half-brother of the testator, is said to have accepted the terms offered by the Universalist convention of Indiana, the latter being the principal defendant in the suit.

By the settlement the Universalist convention of Indiana will use the Thompson homestead, near Waldron, consisting of forty-one acres and a fine brick residence, as a home for aged women of any faith, the institution to be known as the Delos H. Thompson Home for Aged Women. The income from half of the rest of the $75,000 estate will be used to maintain the home, and the income from the other half will be used to pay annuities of $200 each to various relatives of Mr. Thompson.

TELLS STRANGE ATTACK TALE

Vincennes Girl Drives Home in "Borrowed" Rig After Day's Absence.

Vincennes, Ind., Sept. 27.—Miss Mary Schneehagen, twenty years old, employed as a domestic, mysteriously disappeared from the home of Guy A. McInerney, a Vincennes capitalist, about daylight. At 6 o'clock in the evening she appeared at the home of Les Lampe, her foster father, three miles from town, driving a strange horse. Her hair was disheveled, her clothing wet from the day's rain and she was suffering from exposure.

She told Mrs. Lampe that in the morning, on going to a building on the McInerney premises, two men met her and threw something in her face. She began running and doesn't remember anything else until she woke up in the woods, two miles from Vincennes, where she found a horse and buggy, in which she drove home. Word from the Lampe home is that the girl is on the verge of collapse and unable to give an account of her experience that would tend to solve the mystery.

WALTER L. FISHER STARTS A FUSS

Speaks of "Hypocritical Progressives" in Kansas.

SENATOR BRISTOW RESPONDS

Lively Little Verbal Encounter Takes Place in Presence of President Taft and Audience of 10,000 People in Hutchinson.

Hutchinson, Kan., Sept. 27.—Before an audience of 10,000 people at the Kansas semi-centennial celebration and in the presence of President Taft, Walter L. Fisher, secretary of the Inter-tribe, measured verbal lances with Joseph L. Bristow, Kansas' insurgent senator.

The fight came without a word of warning. Not a quarter of the people even knew that Fisher was present. Governor Stubbs called upon him unexpectedly for a speech and before the insurgent executive knew what was happening, Fisher had put his heel on the neck of "hypocritical and demagogical progressives" and had his audience in an uproar. Governor Stubbs was on his feet before Fisher had ceased talking and crowded into the first pause to introduce to the audience "their great senator, whom every Kansan knows."

Then Senator Bristow went after Mr. Fisher. He seized the opportunity to resent Mr. Fisher's attack upon "hypocritical progressives" as an insult to the integrity of the citizenship of Kansas and demanded that the people of other states concede the honesty of the people of Kansas as Kansas admitted the honesty of others. He drove home the local note in his speech for all that was in him and his appeal caught the ears of the excited crowd.

The rumpus came on the end of a week-long, uneventful day. President Taft had just completed his reading of an address on the history of Kansas. Ten thousand people had gathered at the fair grounds to listen to the president and Governor Stubbs, who presided, had warmed them up with some of his fulsome praise and a few epigrammatic expressions culled practically verbatim from the oft-spoken speeches of Colonel Roosevelt upon the baby crup, and which the governor adorned with more facial contortions and hand swinging than these speeches had ever known before.

The crowd had expected a rousing speech from Mr. Taft. It was evident that they wanted a bit of the history of their state as the president read it to them. But the people hung on and during the president's address it had evidently been borne upon the mind of Governor Stubbs that if he would place Secretary Fisher before them he could "wake things up." But it was palpably a surprise to the governor when Mr. Fisher chose that particular note for the awakening of which the governor as a future presidential candidate has been most anxious of late to let slumber.

COURT MAY PASS ON KIMMEL

Suit for Insurance on His Life, Up Soon in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Sept. 27.—Whether the man of mystery now in Niles, Mich., claiming to be George A. Kimmel, missing bank cashier, is the real Kimmel or an impostor may be legally decided in St. Louis within the next few months. The test will be made in the trial of the suit of George C. Rankin, receiver for the First National bank of Niles, against the New York Life insurance company, to compel it to pay a $5,000 policy on Kimmel's life.

The case, which has been twice tried, is on United States District Judge Dyer's docket and will be docketed for trial soon.

FEELHAN FACTION SUSTAINED

Election Row in Mineworkers' Union Is Decided by Authorities.

Indianapolis, Sept. 27.—The international executive board of the United Mineworkers has sustained Francis Feehan and other members of his faction in the election fight in the Pittsburgh district, one of the bitterest contests waged in the ranks of union labor in several years. Official announcement of the finding of the board will appear in this week's issue of the Mineworkers' Journal.

In the report of the sub-committee which was approved by the executive board the fight made by the Robert Gibbons faction is characterized as a villainous plot.

POSTMASTER GENERAL FLIES

With Army Aviator He Becomes Aerial Mail Carrier.

New York, Sept. 27.—Frank H. Hitchcock, postmaster general of the United States, qualified as an aerial mail carrier on Long Island. While a large crowd cheered the postmaster general took a seat beside Captain Paul Beck of the army in an aeroplane at the Nassau boulevard aerodrome and carried seventy-eight pounds of mail matter.

Without the slightest mishap, the two made a seven-minute flight in Mineola, where the postmaster general dropped the mail sack to one of Uncle Sam's carriers.

RENO DIVORCES INVALID

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Judge Adeler J. Pettit presented the Reno-hurry-up-divorce trust a dose of judicial knockout drops. In a decision handed down in the Cook county circuit court he held that virtually no Nevada divorce decree is good in the state of Illinois.

The decision is regarded by lawyers generally as the biggest boost that ever has been given in Illinois to the movement recently espoused by President Taft for divorce laws that will be uniform throughout the nation.
